

A NATIONAL CAMPUS SLEEP OUT:

11.14.07

When is it?

Evening of November 14 to morning of November 15.

Where are we sleeping out?

On college campuses throughout the nation.

What are we doing?

To gather in the center of our campuses to watch movies, hear speakers, listen to spoken word, and take other creative actions

What do we bring?

Tents, sleeping bags, signs, and banners.

What is our goal?

Highlight the crisis in the Gulf, and to focus on the solution—the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project (GCCWP).

What are we demanding?

Federal action to implement the Gulf Coast Civic Works Project.

A NEW DEAL FOR THE GULF COAST

The GCCWP will solve three critical needs in the Gulf:

- 1 Provide 100,000 living wage jobs for residents
- 2 Rebuild public infrastructure (hospitals, schools, housing),
- 3 Allow residents to return home.

Sign up your campus right now at SolvingPoverty.com or (510) 508-5382

Don't miss this opportunity to create positive change!

get involved. SolvingPoverty.com

